ORDER

This matter came before the Office of Campaign Finance (OCF) based upon OCF's follow-up on the ineffective service of the Order of the Director issued on September 26, 2003. On September 26, 2003, the Director entered an Order in this matter which imposed a fine of $2,000.00 for failure to timely file a Financial Disclosure Statement on or before June 19, 2003 for calendar year 2002. On August 11, 2004, OCF filed the following Motion.

Summary of Evidence

OCF contacted Diane Camaleri, Director, Human Resources, Office of the Chief Financial Officer (OCFO). Ms. Camaleri advised that respondent's employment was terminated involuntarily in April 2003 due to the restructuring of the agency. Further, Ms. Camaleri advised that the respondent was a Grade 13, District Service employee; thus, was not in a service required to file OCF's Financial Disclosure Statement.

Findings of Fact

Having reviewed the OCF's motion and the record herein, I find that:

1. Respondent was involuntarily separated from the District Government in April 2003.
2. Respondent was a District Service employee paid at the Grade 13 level.
3. Respondent was not a member of a service required to file a Financial Disclosure Statement.

2. Respondent did not violate D.C. Official Code §1-1106.02.
3. For good cause shown pursuant to 3DCMR §3711.6, the Director of Campaign Finance (Director) may modify, rescind, dismiss or suspend any fine.
